DEMOCRATIC AID ASKED BY JAMES

Governor Candidate Says Pennsylvania Has Been Sold Down River.

By the Associated Press.
OIL CITY, Pa., Sept. 14.—Judge Arthur H. James, appealing for the votes of "liberal Democrats," moved into Venango and Clarion Counties today in his campaign for the governorship.

The Republican nominee told a campaign rally gathered in Punxsutawney's Barclay Square last night: "The real Democrats of Pennsylvania are coming to realize that those in power at Harrisburg have sold their party as well as this State down the New Deal river."

"It is unworthy of them to claim to belong to the party of Thomas Jefferson. That famous statesman was ever firm in his support of independence and liberty."

Life Line Declared Need.
Judge James referred to the economic situation and asserted: "We are adrift in a sea of troubled waters, and we need a life line. The only life line in sight in Pennsylvania today is the Republican party."

The Erie administration forgot its principal campaign pledge, which was to give our people more jobs."

Judge James termed "utterly false" the malicious misstatement that either personally or the Republican party will be against relief after the election."

He said the party intended rather to help jobless men and women "get off relief" by charting a path to "real jobs with a real future to them" in private industry.

Daughter Along on Tour.
Earlier, at Indiana, the candidate addressed a county-wide rally at the Fair Grounds. Referring to members of the high school class which attended the rally, Judge James declared: "Mothers and fathers want chances for these boys and girls. They don't want to have to go to a political boss for a job for them."

Judge James' daughter, Dorothy, and Frank Hilton, chairman of the State Young Republicans, are accompanying him on the tour.

SENATOR HAYDEN POLLS BIG VOTE

Scores Easy Victory in Arizona. Democratic Gubernatorial Race Is Close.

By the Associated Press.
PHOENIX, Ariz., Sept. 14.—United States Senator Carl Hayden, Democrat, seeking re-nomination, ran away from two opponents in Arizona's primary election.

Returns today from 75 complete precincts and 165 incomplete of the State's 433 gave Mr. Hayden 16,180; Robert E. Miller, Phoenix druggist, 4,979; Dr. J. Hughes, State superintendent of public health, 4,230. Burt L. Clinton, Phoenix attorney, was unopposed for Republican nomination.

Representative John R. Murdock, seeking Democratic re-nomination, was well in front of James R. Moore, Phoenix real estate attorney, 14,167 to 10,264. M. E. Cassidy, Republican, had no primary opposition.

Returns in the close race for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination gave State Senator R. T. Jones 13,512; Secretary of State James H. Kerby, 13,153; Sidney P. Osborn, Phoenix publisher, 11,941; Andrew Bettwy, Nogales, 1,643. Jerrie W. Lee, secretary of the Arizona Wool Growers' Association, was unopposed for the Republican nomination.

INCUMBENTS CHOSEN BY VERMONT G. O. P.

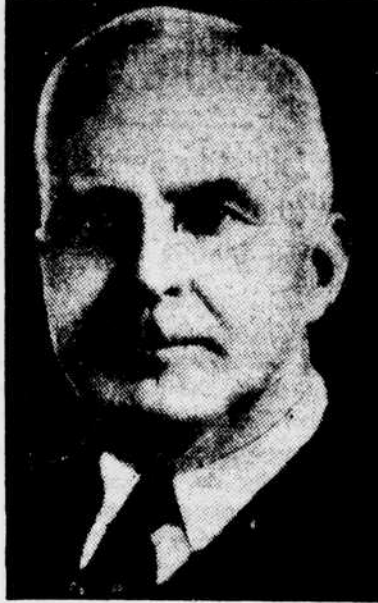

Gov. Aiken, Senator Gibson and Representative Plumley Coast to Victory.

By the Associated Press.
MONTEPELIER, Vt., Sept. 14.—Three Vermont Republican stalwarts—Gov. George D. Aiken, Senator Ernest W. Gibson and Representative Charles A. Plumley—again today were the choice of their party for re-nomination.

Coasting to easy victories in yesterday's primary, they will go into the November election against an unopposed Democratic primary slate to test again the Vermont tradition that Republican nomination for a major office is tantamount to election.

With a minimum of campaigning, the Governor led the ticket in his quest for a second term. He polled 42,898 votes to 5,011 for Elisha Goodsell, 65-year-old ferry boat operator.

FITZGERALD WINS MICHIGAN FIGHT

Nominated for Governor by G. O. P.—Incumbents Score in House Races.

By the Associated Press.
DETROIT, Sept. 14.—The nomination of Frank D. Fitzgerald as the Republican candidate for Governor in Michigan was conceded today by his nearest opponent as returns from yesterday's primary showed an ever-mounting lead for the former chief executive of the State.

With 3,008 precincts of 3,546 reported the total was: Fitzgerald, 352,944; Harry S. Toy, Detroit, former Michigan Supreme Court Justice and State attorney general, 172,818; Roscoe Conkling Pitch, Ludington, young former newspaper and advertising man, 14,728.

Toy conceded defeat and sent his congratulations to Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald will run against Gov. Murphy in November. Gov. Murphy was unopposed in the Democratic primary.

Labor Question Emphasized.

Mr. Fitzgerald, 53 years old, was Governor in 1935-36 and has been in Michigan public life for 25 years. He sought re-election at the end of his first term, but was defeated by Gov. Murphy. He was born in the small town of Grand Ledge and still resides there.

The labor question received much attention in the primary. Mr. Fitzgerald campaigned as a middle-of-the-road candidate.

Michigan's nine Republican and eight Democratic Representatives all sought re-nomination. Three Republicans and two Democrats were unopposed. Outstate incumbents were victorious in every case. In Wayne County, where returns were slow, the outcome was not immediately evident. Carl E. Mapes, Grand Rapids, who has represented the fifth Michigan district since 1913, won by a landslide.

Dickinson Has Big Lead.

Luren D. Dickinson, six times lieutenant governor, held a big lead over five other candidates seeking the Republican nomination for that office. With 2,976 of 3,546 precincts reported, Mr. Dickinson had 214,808 votes. His nearest opponent, Thomas Reed, had 118,356.

In the Democratic primary, Lt. Gov. Leo J. Nowicki, who is seeking re-nomination, was closely pressed by Representative George A. Schroeder, Speaker of the State House of Representatives. On the basis of 2,913 precincts Nowicki had polled 114,041 votes to Schroeder's 108,525.

Incumbent Michigan Representatives were re-nominated in 11 districts as follows: Second, Michener, Republican; third, Shafer, Republican; fourth, Hoffman, Republican; fifth, Mayes, Republican; sixth, Transue, Democrat; seventh, Wolcott, Republican; eighth, Crawford, Republican; ninth, Engel, Republican; tenth, Woodruff, Republican; eleventh, Luecke, Democrat; twelfth, Hook, Democrat. Shafer, Wolcott, Engel, Luecke and Hook were unopposed.

The status of incumbent Representatives in the first, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth and seventeenth districts, all in Wayne County (Detroit), was not evident on the face of slow returns.

Seven Survive Two Crashes.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Sept. 14 (AP).—Two planes went into the Bluefield River on the Virginia side yesterday within 20 minutes of each other, but the seven persons in them escaped unhurt. An automobile driven by R. A. Grogan of Bluefield skidded and went over a 30-foot bank near Bluefield, Va. Shortly afterward a car driven by Paul Barbour of Bluefield, Va., carrying four Bluefield College students, rolled over at the same place.

ROY-JENKS FEUD RENEWAL LIKELY

New Hampshire Rivals for House Both Lead in Their Own Primaries.

By the Associated Press.
MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 14.—Gov. Francis P. Murphy today celebrated an apparent slim victory over Attorney General Thomas P. Cheney after a tense battle for New Hampshire's Republican gubernatorial nomination, but a question mark remained in ballots still uncounted. With few precincts awaiting unofficial tabulation, Gov. Murphy, one of the State's wealthiest citizens, held a lead of around 4,000 votes. Most of the question-mark precincts were in industrial Manchester, where the Governor was conceded to have some strength, and his adherents contended his lead was safe. Both endorsed the Townsend plan. Representative Charles W. Tobey, another Townsended in-dorsee, was an easy victor in a three-man contest for the Republican senatorial nomination. Senator Fred H. Brown was unopposed for re-nomination by the Democrats. Complete unofficial returns from the State's 297 precincts in the Republican senatorial primary gave Representative Tobey, 44,644; Eliot A. Carter, 26,396, and Joseph Moore, 2,043. Barring startling reversals, the Granite State's first congressional district will see another November election feud between Representative Alphonse Roy, Democrat, and Arthur B. Jenks, Republican. In the second congressional district Foster Stearns, son of Frank Stearns, White House adviser to Calvin Coolidge, defeated Thomas Laite by less than 400 votes in complete unofficial tabulations of a nine-man race for the Republican nomination. The Democratic candidate, Alvin A. Lucier of Nashua, was unopposed.
